Zurich – 13 March 2009

FLY COMLUX DIVISION MOVES TO NEW OFFICES AT ZURICH AIRPORT

Comlux The Aviation group is pleased to announce that its Charter and Aircraft management division based in Zurich - Fly Comlux - moves to new offices at Zurich Kloten Airport, starting 1st April . With 4 VIP aircraft of its fleet based in Zurich, this change allows Comlux to get closer to its crew and aircraft transiting through Zurich Airport.

Whereas the operational side of Comlux moves to Zurich Airport, Comlux Management (including Comlux Transactions and Comlux Creatives) remains in the city center of Zurich, offering to its clients a great location close to the Banks and Financial institutions. Besides, Comlux Creatives has established in the same building a complete floor dedicated to its cabin interior showroom and design office.

Stephen Laven, CEO of Fly Comlux division says: “The new facilities of Comlux Aviation AG at Zurich airport are spacious and ultra modern. This new atmosphere will enhance team work between Dispatch, Charter sales, Maintenance and Crew training activities. As for any aircraft operator, the airport proximity is a plus which allows you to increase the quality of your service and to get closer to our flying teams”.
